MOTION FOR RESPONSE TO THE SPECIAL REPORT FILED BY THE DEFENDANT

Comes now the Plaintiff Jeffery Lynn Kreidler pro se serving a custodial term with the Department of Corrections, filed a Civil Complaint Pursuant to U.S.C. § 1983;

The Plaintiff confirms that the Defendants violated his right to be free of Cruel and Unusual Punishment as prohibited by the Eight and Fourteenth Amendments.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On March 9, 2007 inmate Jeffery Lynn Kreidler was housed in Dorm B-1 at Elmore Co. Facility. While making his bed, the Plaintiff turned around toward the window at the head of his bed with no Safetly locks feel down on Plaintiffs right ring finger, and cut the Plaintiffs finger off, then Plaintiff had to be taken to Staton Co. Facility Infirmary and later flighted to Baptist South Hospital to sew the remains of Plaintiffs finger on with (10) Ten Stidges that left Plaintiff with no filling in Plaintiffs right ring finger because of destroyed Ligaments in finger.

ARGUMENT

The Defendant Willie Thomas an Individual and in his official Capacity as Warden of Elmore Co. Facility acted in negligence and in Bad Faith when the Defendant violated PLaintiffs Constitutional right of Cruel & Unusual Punishment and prohibited by the Eight & Fourteenth Amendment. See Wood v. Strickland 420 U.S. 308 95 S.ct 992, 43 L.ED 2d 214(1975); "The Supreme Court held that under section 1983, Plaintiff can recover Money damages from State Officials, if the Officials acted either in Bad Faith or in disregard of settled, indisputable Law, or a Public Official may be held liable where he in subjective good faith, acts in disregard of a person's clearly established Constitutional rights". Id at 322 95 S.ct.992, Martin v. Harrelson 532 so.2d 1256 (1988).

Defendant failed to comply with Mininum standards set forth in Order of Court with respect to Inhumane Conditions found to exist in Alabama Penal System would necessitate closing of such institutions in future 42 U.S. C.A. s 1983 U.S.C.A. Constitution Amendments Eight & Fourteenth.The Living Conditions in Alabama Constitute Cruel & Unusual Punishment.See Pugh v. Locke 406 F.Supp.318.

The Mininum Standards For Inmates of Alabama Penal System Living Conditions IV. (4)All institutions shall be adequately heated,lighted, and ventilitated.Windows and doors shall be Properly screened and otherwise Properly maintained.

The Defendant Willie Thomas been had prior knowledge of the ongoing inhumane condition here at Elmore Co.Facility, but refuse to recitify the problem and it's caused I inmate Jeffery Lynn Kreidler & inmate Rochester Kemp to lose a limb arising from the same ongoing problems with the windows repair and several other inmates have been injured because of this condition.

The maintenance workers here at Elmore Co. Facility got an order to fix the windows in 2006, but the acting official Warden Willie Thomas refuse to acknowledge the problem out of negligence See Exhibit (4)Affidavit; When the weather conditions are bad here at Elmore Co. Facility the whole window pane will fall out, with the slightest gust of wind, there's no support in the reinforcement, the dilapidation of the physical facility contributes to extremely unsanitary living conditions testimony demonstrated that windows are broken & unscreened, creating a serious problem for inmates getting fingers cut off, or severly damaged, poses constant danger, and the defendant Willie Thomas is held liable in his official capacity.

RELIEF

The Plaintiff Jeffery Lynn Kreidler seeks Compensatory and Punitive damages in this action. $ 5,000 five-thousand dollars for the initial injury of the finger, and $ 45,000 forty-five thousand dollars for the Pain and Suffering, and permanent disfigurement & disability and living in the inhumane conditions here at Elmore Correctional Center. The Plaintiff is a certified Carpenter by Trade and his Injury will hinder his ability to work and Provide for his wife and two (2) kids in whom are his dependants.

CONCLUSION

The Plaintiff respectfully submit this Response, and that all evidence in this Civil Complaint should be relevant to the Court, and should be granted in the Plaintiffs favor.

MATTHEW RUST, AIS# 246868 deposes and says:

I inmate Matthew Rust is over the legal age of (21) twenty-one and I sleep in the same vicinity where inmate Jeffery Kreidler got his finger cut off, and the unhumane conditions are so bad that we have to use sticks to hold the windows up to keep from falling on us by the dormitories being so over-crowded and the beds close to the windows, when the windows are suppose to be secured from incidents happening like what has been taking place here at Elmore Corr.Center. Everything that I am saying is True and Correct.
